"Superb workshop - accessible to all.

What a fabulous way to explore The Parable of The Good Samaritan.

Passionate dance teachers who made learning fun and accessible to all.

"Wonderful to see my Y6 boys so engaged"

Toni Handson, Senior Leader, William Stukeley School, Holbeach.

“The children were able to link the dance to their RE topic ... Children chose to work with somebody outside of their friendship group. Excellent team building”

Jasmine Peel, PE & RE Subject Lead / Teacher

Creative, curriculum-based workshops

Our workshops help children try out new and exciting dance skills and to go deeper into RE. They are a great way to ensure depth in the Religious Education curriculum, inline with the new Ofsted criteria.

The Good Samaritan workshops focus on the importance of helping others and standing up for them, even if they are not like you. The workshops touch on themes of living in a multi-racial / multi-religious society.

Both the performance and workshops encourage exploration, and, in line with RE, children will be challenged to consider whether the parables have any relevance for them, to think about what is important and to ask moral questions.

These workshops and assembly can be adapted to suit your school and can be used to illustrate the school's values / British Values.

“An excellent workshop, which engaged and challenged even our most reluctant learners.”

Jo Cardush, Y4 Teacher
